xplore

budget without compromise

The Xplore, a relative newcomer launched in 2008 is an acclaimed success, scooping the prestigious Caravan Industry's Tourer of the Year title in its first year and setting the new benchmark for affordable tourers.

In 2010, the Xplore goes from strength to strength. Further improvements include not just brilliant new layouts and improved design ... this year sees Xplore become part of the Elddis family, with slick new badging to show off its proud new credentials.

The Xplore is no ordinary budget caravan. Expect every creature comfort and attention to detail, in a winning range making touring accessible to all.

Children will delight in their own designated den with triple bunks and play area (596 layout) whilst caravanning couples will love the luxurious fixed bed option, keeping the lounge dinette as dining and entertainment space.

The variety of layouts available in the Xplore range creates more choice than ever before and more room to make your own.

New Elddis exterior graphics announce your arrival, whilst inside the latest interior design and luxury soft furnishings create the perfect base for your latest adventure.

There'll be lazy days spent barbecuing and evenings seeking out the local eateries. But for the times you're craving your favourite snack or fancy throwing a dinner party, the Xplore is kitted out with everything you need.

The Spinflo Prima oven is capable of a roast dinner fit for all the family, the 3-burner hob handles even a wok for a quick and easy stir fry. The Xplore boasts a stainless steel sink with integral drainer and a spacious Thetford fridge for storing your holiday provisions.
